"I already have a strong passion for helping kids in my community, but these conferences are where my deep knowledge and passion for Boys & Girls Clubs comes from. Our national network of volunteers and professionals is perhaps one of our greatest strengths and what makes us the strongest youth serving organization in the world. This network and these conferences are the birthplace of the best programs, practices, and ideas that we implement in our Clubs every day."

-James Conners, Board Member, Boys & Girls Clubs of Emerald Valley (1/9/25)
